

To: Current & Future Educational Interpreters
Date: December 1, 2008
Subject: EIPA Test

The Michigan Department of Education (MDE), Office of Special Education and Early Intervention Services and the Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth's Division on Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DODHH) are now working with the Educational Interpreter Performance Assessment (EIPA) Diagnostic Evaluation Center, located at Boys Town National Research Hospital, Omaha, Nebraska, to provide assessment of educational interpreters. Janet Jurus, Rebecca Shriner, Joy Thomassen, and Joyce Washington will serve as the EIPA Local Testing Administrators in Michigan.

The application cost for this assessment is $25 for current K-12 educational interpreters who are taking the test for the first time in Michigan. MDE will pay the EIPA fee for a limited time. The full fee is for those who are re-taking the test or for candidates who wish to become an educational interpreter. The DODHH now has a contract with Boys Town to offer the EIPA exam to retesting applicants, non-educational interpreters, and those out of state applicants wanting to test in Michigan. There are limited slots available.

We started offering testing in March of 2007 and will be offering testing slots each month. Please scroll down three pages to see 2009 EIPA testing dates and locations.

If you are interested in taking the test, please quickly send in your appropriate application and fee. The MDE-LIO office will confirm the receipt of your processed application and payment through e-mail. Please call the MDE-LIO office to schedule a testing date, after receiving this contact.

To learn more about the EIPA test, look up information in the following link:

The DODHH is simply proctoring the test. Collette Bauman is the contact person for questions deciding if you qualify as an educational interpreter.

Sincerely Yours,
